

SUMMER FELLOWSHIP 2015 – INTERNET AND SOCIETY

This year the Alexander von Humboldt Institute for Internet and Society once again opens its doors for summer fellows from all over the globe. We invite applications from early stage researchers pursuing transdisciplinary internet research. If you are seeking exchange regarding your research aspirations and think your objectives match or complement ours, we look forward to hearing from you!

Opportunities:

Our summer fellowship provides innovative thinkers a unique opportunity to exchange experiences and set off new initiatives in an inviting intellectual environment. In addition to that you will get in touch with other summer fellows during the common research period. The selected fellows are very welcome to collaborate in a growing international team and to participate in the research activities at our institute. We encourage you to actively shape your stay according to your research interests. We offer a number of opportunities to get involved with our research programme and discuss your research project with the HIIG research team, such as:

- Writing a paper related to your research project, e.g. publishing in our SSRN Internet & Society Series
- Holding a presentation about a topic of your choice in our weekly HIIG Club
- Organising a workshop related to your research topic
- Engage in joint activities and projects with other fellows
- And more – according to your interest

Allowances:

Fellows are expected to bring their own funding through their home institution or outside grants. Fellows must take care of their accommodation, insurance, childcare, and transportation arrangements. However, in specific cases we can provide a travel allowance of up to € 700,- and a visa subsidy of up to € 200,- on request.

Time frame:

We offer fellowships ranging from 3 to 12 months starting from 1 June 2015 at the earliest. Fellowships must cover the period from July 1st to August 31st to guarantee the exchange among all of our fellows.

Qualifications:

- Master's degree, PhD in full process/nearing completion
- Fluency in English; command of German is appreciated
- Research experience and an Internet research project of your own

Required application documents:

- curriculum vitae
- letter of motivation explaining your interest in the fellowship, your expectations and your research background (1 page)
- outline of a) your research project, b) the work you propose to conduct during the fellowship, c) contributions you plan to realise during your stay, d) projects on our research agenda that are of interest to you, and e) if possible, preferred project partners at our institute (maximum 3 pages total)
