PATERNERSHIP WITH WIKIAFRICA: SHARE YOUR AFRICAN KNOWLEDGE ON WIKIPEDIA

On behalf of Heritage Western Cape, I would like to express our support for the project WikiAfrica: Share your African Knowledge on Wikipedia.

Heritage Western Cape is excited about the above project as it has great potential to create an awareness of Heritage amongst the youth within the Western Cape.

As core contributors to the project, we are happy to provide Wikipedia with lists of protected Provincial Heritage sites within the Western Cape, which amounts to approximately 1389 sites (One Thousand Three Hundred and Eighty Nine). Heritage Western Cape endeavors to provide additional lists of the 25 000 (Twenty Five Thousand) protected sites at local level from our municipalities.

In addition our organisation will publish on our website a news alert / article about the project, declaring our organisation as proud supporters of the project.
