

Exciting new competition

WIKI FROM ABOVE 2015

South African drone based photographic and video competition!

FPV Fest South Africa have joined forces with Wikimedia ZA to help encourage the local FPV community to contribute aerial video and photo content to Wikimedia Commons for use on Wikipedia.

The focus of the project, a world first, is to increase the quantity and quality of aerial photographs and video media of important public landmarks and scenery in Africa.

The competition will run during the months of March and April, and the winners will be announced at the SA Drone Festival, which will be held in Cape Town from 1 – 3 May 2015.

Encouraged Categories for the competition are:

-  Towns, Neighbourhoods and Settlements
-  Beaches & Parks
-  Monuments
-  Mountains, Valleys and Natural Landmarks
-  Major events

The categories are Best Video, Best Photograph and Best Use on Wikipedia with over R 10 000.00 of prizes up for grabs!

Entries will be judged according to the following criteria:

-  Can be used on a Wikipedia page – how effectively it illustrates the topic of the relevant page
-  Aesthetic quality of the media – overall aesthetic value of submitted date
-  Technical quality of the media – steadiness of footage, size of uploaded file and overall quality of media

About FPV Fest

An event created to bring the South African FPV/UAV/Drone Community together. The aim is to grow the much loved hobbies/careers, and share a passion for flight.

About Wikimedia ZA

Wikimedia South Africa is an independent organisation for Wikimedia volunteers. The Chapter aims to support a vibrant local community that promotes the creation of free and open knowledge. Contributing to Wikipedia is a key part of this effort.
